

SPANISH LANGUAGE AND CULTURE FOR HERITAGE SPEAKERS

Dept. of World Languages, Literatures, & Cultures

NEW FOR FALL 2024!

Heritage Speaker defined

Heritage Spanish speakers ...

- have been exposed to Spanish in their families or communities
- have varied levels of proficiency in the language
- tend to have higher proficiency in speaking than writing
- have unique varieties of Spanish reflective of their communities

WHY TAKE THIS CLASS?

Learning outcomes

- expand knowledge of Spanish for professional contexts
- develop reading and writing skills in Spanish
- explore the history and cultures of Latinxs in the US
- explore aspects of bilingualism and Spanish language variety

IS THIS CLASS RIGHT FOR ME?

Placement in Spanish classes

Spanish language and culture for Heritage speakers (Span 2155 Section 2) is right for you if...

- you placed into Span 2155 through the placement or AP test
- you completed or received credit for the basic language sequence (Span 1101-2102)
- you are placed by Spanish program faculty

HOW DO I REGISTER?

Permission of the department

Contact the Spanish Undergraduate Advisor to

- be interviewed for placement in Spanish
- to find out more about the Spanish major and minor at LSU
- to register for Spanish Language and Culture for Heritage Speakers: Span 2155 Section 2 fall 2024

Dr. Andrea E. Morris (aemorris@lsu.edu)